David Muchmore: David works full time for CrossWorld as the International Director for Asia, including extensive travel, training, teaching and encouraging workers. David also volunteers his free time to manage Lemuel's banking and bookkeeping in the US. In addition, David helps facilitate the shipment of materials from the US to Haiti.

Ginger Muchmore: Ginger is a co-founder of Lemuel and worked as General Secretary for Lemuel from its founding until 2002 when she and David left Haiti. Today she continues to be involved in Lemuel, making several trips to Haiti a year to participate as a leader in some of Lemuel's outreach programs. She also speaks for Lemuel in the US and Canada and keeps up communications with donors.
